RE: Recognition of the Giacomini Family and the Robert Giacomini Dairy upon receipt of the Leopold Conservation Award.

Dear Colleagues,

Please join me in recognizing members of the Giacomini Family who recently received the prestigious California Leopold Conservation Award. The Robert Giacomini Dairy, home to the Point Reyes Farmstead Cheese Co., was given the award by the Sand County Foundation, the California Farm Bureau Federation and Sustainable Conservation. The award honors private landowner achievement in the stewardship and management of natural resources. A short film will be shown about the Dairy, and will underscore the multifaceted benefits of sustainable agriculture in Marin. I believe that the Giacomini Family members are the first honorees from Marin County in the history of this award, and I encourage you to join me in celebrating this remarkable achievement.

Sincerely,

Steve Kinsey
